Foreword

Lest the players of the 1941-42 performance at Mount Carmel Senior High School leave the scene of the production like the poor player

*"Who struts and frets his hour upon the stage,
And then is heard no more",*

the Staff of THE CARMELITE offers this brief pictorial review of the drama they have so vividly portrayed during the year.

The scenes presented within these covers can only serve as cues to the colorful drama of half-forgotten yesterdays: the daily pranks, the many joys, the unexpected successes; the disappointments and heart-aches; the little, secret tragedies; the early dreams and vague ambitions. They witness how a democratic society lived and worked in friendly, youthful spirit under the guidance of those rich in kindness and wisdom.

When the final curtain is drawn on the year at Senior High School, may these pages forever, in spite of time and space, revive in the reader the spirit of youth and keep alive its best ideals to shape the future into something good and joyous and beautiful. May this interlude inspire a richer experience and a greater achievement in the never ending drama of life.

Dedication

MRS. JOHN M. KONOPKA

MR. GORDON A. MARWINE

In appreciation of their friendly guidance and unfailing devotion the Class of 1942 dedicates this issue of The Carmelite to their advisers, Mrs. John M. Konopka and Mr. Gordon A. Marwine.

SONG OF THE CLASS OF 1942

Words by VIRGINIA MALINOSKI

Tune: Largo from Dvorak's New World Symphony

Now we part; with sad tears we are leaving school,
To recall through the years friendships which are dear.
We have toiled joyfully to attain our goal.
We have striv'n endlessly; the future holds no fear.
So we wish to depart loyal seniors true,
And this night leaves us sad as we bid adieu,
As we bid adieu.

Teachers, friends, day is o'er; our work here is done.
Through the years we shall strive to uphold thy name.
Alma Mater, hear our praise for your guidance sound,
For the strength, courage, power that you have instilled.
Now we part, with sad tears, to go on our way;
All there is left to say is a sad farewell, just a sad farewell,
Just a sad farewell.

EDITORIAL STAFF: THE CARMELITE WEEKLY; IXL; THE SPOTLIGHT

"The Carmelite Weekly" has presented to the public a record of the trivia of the days that constitute life at school.

The IXL has served as a periodical of a more literary nature and as an outlet for the originality of talented and thinking individuals of the student body.

"The Spotlight" has aimed to attract the attention of the student body to significant and interesting moments at the appropriate time. Irregularly issued, it was a convenient vehicle for such extemporanea.

TRAFFIC PATROL AND AIR-RAID WARDENS

The Traffic Patrol has not only maintained order throughout the school but served as another test of student self-management by conducting the traffic tribunal. When the air raid drills were introduced, its members assumed duties as air raid wardens.

FIRST Row: (Left to Right) Elmer Belfonti, Paul John, Joseph Barlow.

SECOND Row: Burt Williams, Louis Visintainer, Henry Jakowski, Fred Ludes, Clarence Gawain.

THIRD Row: Leo Witkoski, James Thomas, Alphonse Zelinskas, William Wardrop, Edward Boris, Mr. William Hodrick, Adviser.

CAMERA CLUB

The Camera Club studied photography both as a hobby and as an art, working from practical as well as theoretical angles in their various phases.

FIRST Row: (Left to Right) Geraldine Rovnak, Mary Leonetti, Mary Wasilewski, Virginia Kunis, Arlene Evans.

SECOND Row: Mr. Luther Boyer, Adviser; Catherine Scicchitano, Anna Shuptar, Mildred Bender, Eleanor Kovack, Rita Sadusky.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

The Girls' Glee Club has furnished opportunity to its members for a study of music beyond the popular genre. Its members have provided the main body of the cast of the operetta, "Hearts and Blossoms".

FIRST Row: (Left to Right) Beatrice Weikel, Cecelia Sosnoski, Mildred Sokol, Jean Strausser, Emily Kerestes, Harriet Snyder, Anna Gurba, Josephine Warner, Catherine Guarna, Thelma Morris, Roberta Gaetz, Charis Henry, Gloria Borga, Lucille Krasiewski, Sylvia Unterbach, Arlene Evans, Helen Naroleski, Marcella Butkiewicz, Virginia Malinoski.

GIRLS' DRILL TEAM

Girls' Drill Team has assisted the band in varied and interesting performances that added color and spectacle on the football field, in parades, and in assembly programs. Their service and enthusiasm helped make the March of Dimes a success in our school and community.

FIRST Row: (Left to Right) Evelyn Neumann, Emma Weissinger, Marie Shupinski, Jean Adams, Betty Kerstetter, Jean Walsh.

SECOND Row: Fay Francis, Doris Burgard, Anna Shuptar, Mildred Bender, Bernice Wanzie, Fern Galow, Jean Stutzman, Irene Patricoski.

Not on the picture: Miss Mary Mayan, Director.

CHEERLEADERS

The cheerleaders have been the unfailing enthusiastic directors of the assembly pep-meetings as well as the lively leaders of student cheering on the gridiron.

Nov. 8Mount Carmel 7—Shamokin Junior Varsity 7
Nov. 15Mount Carmel 0—Kulpmont Junior Varsity 26

Under the direction of Mr. William Hodrick the Junior Varsity Squad was organized in October, 1941. It included boys from the seventh to the sophomore classes. Though most of the squad did not receive opportunity to play in the varsity games, they made enough progress in mastering the fundamentals of the game to enable them to make the shift from Junior Varsity to Varsity football at any time. A sufficient number of them proved capable of becoming good players, and there is every reason to believe in a promising team for the 1942 season.

James Ploppert

James Ploppert, James Adams, and Robert Hower ran well in front in all meets and were responsible for the dual meet victories of M.C.H.S. Inability to develop 4th and 5th place boys cost M.C.H.S. other meets.

James Ploppert, tenth in Regional Meet and fifth in the All-League meet, was the most consistent runner for M.C.H.S. The course record of 12:46 was approached as Ploppert ran 12:48 in the only home meet.

To Our Patrons

—the business and professional men and women who have contributed most generously to the advertising section—the Class of 1942 wishes to express its sincere appreciation and thanks. The unfailing support of the succeeding advertisers has made possible this volume as it had others in the past. Their devotion to Mount Carmel Senior High School warrants not only the attention but also the patronage of every Mount Carmelite.

THE CARMELITE Staff takes this opportunity to wish all its patrons success and prosperity.
